On May 18th Girl Scouts from Rock United Service Unit held an event to support My New Red Shoes, a California-based organization, which helps homeless children feel confident on the first day of school by giving them a new pair of shoes and a gift card to purchase clothing. The Girl Scouts sewed 78 gift bags and made 73 "Happy First Day of School" cards to be enclosed with the gifts. Founded in 2006, My New Red Shoes has helped more than 21,000 children in California's Bay Area since its inception. Their website is www.myneredshoes.org.
